

During the summer semester the SuK Department is offering a preparation course for the:

Cambridge First Certificate in English (FCE)

Thursdays, 9.50 – 13.00 h, Gießen Campus
Lecturer: Ms. A. Carlson

Please register with Christine.Dannhofer@suk.fh-giessen.de, as the course is limited to 20 students.

COURSE CONTENT:

This course is for students who either want to develop their intermediate English or prepare for the FCE exam. We offer you a weekly, 4-lesson block, supported by 1-2 hrs. of study on your own to pass the exam. You will have the chance to improve your reading, writing, listening and speaking skills, enhance your vocabulary and revise structures in communicative grammar activities.

LEVEL:

FCE is a general English (upper) intermediate examination at B2 level. It requires some confidence in using the main structures of the language and a wide range of vocabulary when communicating with English-speaking people in a variety of social situations.

RECOGNITION:

FCE has widespread recognition in commerce and industry and signifies the ability to operate effectively in English. It is also recognised by some universities as fulfilling English language entrance requirement.

For further information see www.cambridge-efl.org or www.cambridge-exams.de

If you want to see whether you are fit to take the FCE prep course, do this placement test at <http://www.cambridgeesol.org/testyourenglish/index.php>

The Cambridge certificate exam is administered by the VHS Wetzlar. Please register with them directly:
