

The Language Centre is offering a preparation course for the:

Cambridge English: B2 First

WS 22/23: Fridays, 9:50 – 13:00 Gießen Campus
Lecturer: Ms Carlson

Please register online (<https://studien-sb-service.th-mittelhessen.de/docu/online.html>)

COURSE CONTENT:

This course is for students who either want to develop their intermediate English or prepare for the FCE exam. We offer you a weekly 4-lesson block, which should be supported by 1-2 hrs. of study on your own to pass the exam. You will have the chance to improve your reading, writing, listening and speaking skills, enhance your vocabulary and revise structures in communicative grammar activities. A final test during the regular THM exam period completes the course. To receive your ECTS points for the preparation class it is not required to pass the official Cambridge Certificate.

LEVEL:

Cambridge First is a general English (upper) intermediate examination at B2 level. It requires some confidence in using the main structures of the language and a wide range of vocabulary when communicating with English-speaking people in a variety of social situations.

RECOGNITION:

Cambridge First has widespread recognition in commerce and industry and signifies the ability to operate effectively in English. It is also recognised by some universities as fulfilling English language entrance requirement.

For further information go to www.cambridgeenglish.org

If you want to see whether you are fit to take the Cambridge First preparation course, take this placement test at:

<http://www.cambridgeenglish.org/test-your-english/>

In Hesse the Cambridge certificate exams are administered by Provadis Partner für Bildung und Beratung GmbH.

To register for the official exam click here:

<https://www.provadis.de/ausbildung/fuer-schueler/cambridge-sprachzertifikat.html>

General English First Certificate in English (FCE)

For more information see:

<https://seminare.provadis.de/>